

Radio conglomeration is already out of control. Both the quality and range of what gets heard over the airwaves has been significantly diluted since 1996. For the sake of the listening public, this trend needs to be stopped. Please do not allow ownership restrictions to be rolled back even further. Things are bad enough. Thank you.